The session will cover:

- Summary of what is happening in Cambridgeshire and Peterborough in relation to active travel
- The work Sustrans are doing across Cambridgeshire and Peterborough
- The current national policy landscape
- Active Travel England and what do they do
- Local Cycling and Walking Infrastructure Plans (LCWIPs)
- Local Transport Note 1/20 and why is it important
- What does 'good' look like for walking and cycling infrastructure? – best practice case studies
- Understanding the 'silent majority' and the challenges of navigating vocal advocates and opponents.

Followed by a question and answer session.

Please sign up for one of the three sessions below by accepting the attached Team's invite:

- Monday 29th January at 12pm to 1pm
- Tuesday 30th January at 6pm to 7pm
- Monday 5th February at 6pm to 7pm

If you have any questions you would like to submit in advance please do so by emailing Yo Higton, Active Travel Lead (Yo.Higton@cambridgeshirepeterborough-ca.gov.uk)

We look forward to seeing you then,
Kind regards, Yo
